Drastic Cuts In Gas, Electric Are Forced In Berlin

BY EDWIN SHANKE AND
GEORGE BRIA
BERLIN, July 8—The Russians' economic strangulation of Western Berlin today forced drastic new cuts in the use of electricity and gas.

Unemployment grew among the 2,000,000 Germans in the blockaded American, British and French sectors of the city. The Western Allies were working out emergency employment schemes to keep idle industrial workers off the streets. An unemployment assistance plan giving workers between 50 and 60 per cent of their normal wages was introduced.

Col. Frank L. Howley, the American commandant, announced that the western powers had decided to maintain the present food rations but to cut coal. He said:

Greatest Air Lift

"To meet the emergency, to save 2,000,000 Berliners from starvation as well as economic and social destruction, the United States, British and French military governments are engaged in the greatest air lift in peacetime history. Thousands of tons of food, fuel and medicine are being flown from the west to Berlin."

Unfavorable weather slowed the Allied airlift this morning. By 10 a. m. only 19 American transport planes had arrived at Tempelhof airfield.

American fliers heard complaints from two of their comrades of strange radio interference in the air corridor to Berlin.

There were unconfirmed reports that Soviet Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky had gone to Moscow for consultations, presumably regarding an answer to the Western Allies' protest over the Russian blockade.

Howley, in a statement to the Berliners, asked the people to "bear in mind that freedom and democracy always have been purchased only by struggle and suffering." He said he believed they would "measure up to the role which history has given

QUERY DEWEY
ON STATEMENT

Teacher Association Asking
Candidate's Answer
To Pearson's Column

BY RICHARD H. SMITH
CLEVELAND, July 8—Representatives of America's teachers were ready today to rebuke Gov. Thomas E. Dewey unless he explained to their satisfaction a report he made in an interview with the teachers' lobby.

The delegation from the Republican presidential nominee's own state of New York was especially upset and injured by his failure to answer their request that he clarify his views for some 3,500 educators meeting here in the 86th annual National Education association convention.

John A. Cullen of Mount Vernon, N. Y., new state director and a teacher of aviation mechanics, said:

"This is a slap in the face to the teachers, especially in New York. We state in a 'Dewey' worded book asking his 90-95 didn't condemn him in public. All we want to do is to hear what Mr. Dewey has to say about this."

By "this," Cullen meant statements which Columnist Drew Pearson said Dewey made last month at a governors' conference in Portsmouth, N. H.

The Pearson column, read in a general session yesterday, reported Dewey tried in vain to get other governors to fight the teachers' lobby with a $50,000 publicity campaign. The column said further that Dewey described teachers' propaganda for pay raises as "the biggest lie since Adolf Hitler."

NEA President Glenn E. Snow of St. George, Utah, said every effort was being made to get Dewey to send a satisfactory answer by noon today. The five-day meeting ends tomorrow night.

Delegates regarded as unsatisfactory a telephoned denial of the criticism which Dewey authorized his secretary, James Hagerty, to make Tuesday to Martin L. Wilson, a New York City NEA delegate and a political supporter of the governor.

In that call, as reported by Wilson on the convention floor, Dewey, through Hagerty, denied he ever asked other governors to "break the teachers' union."

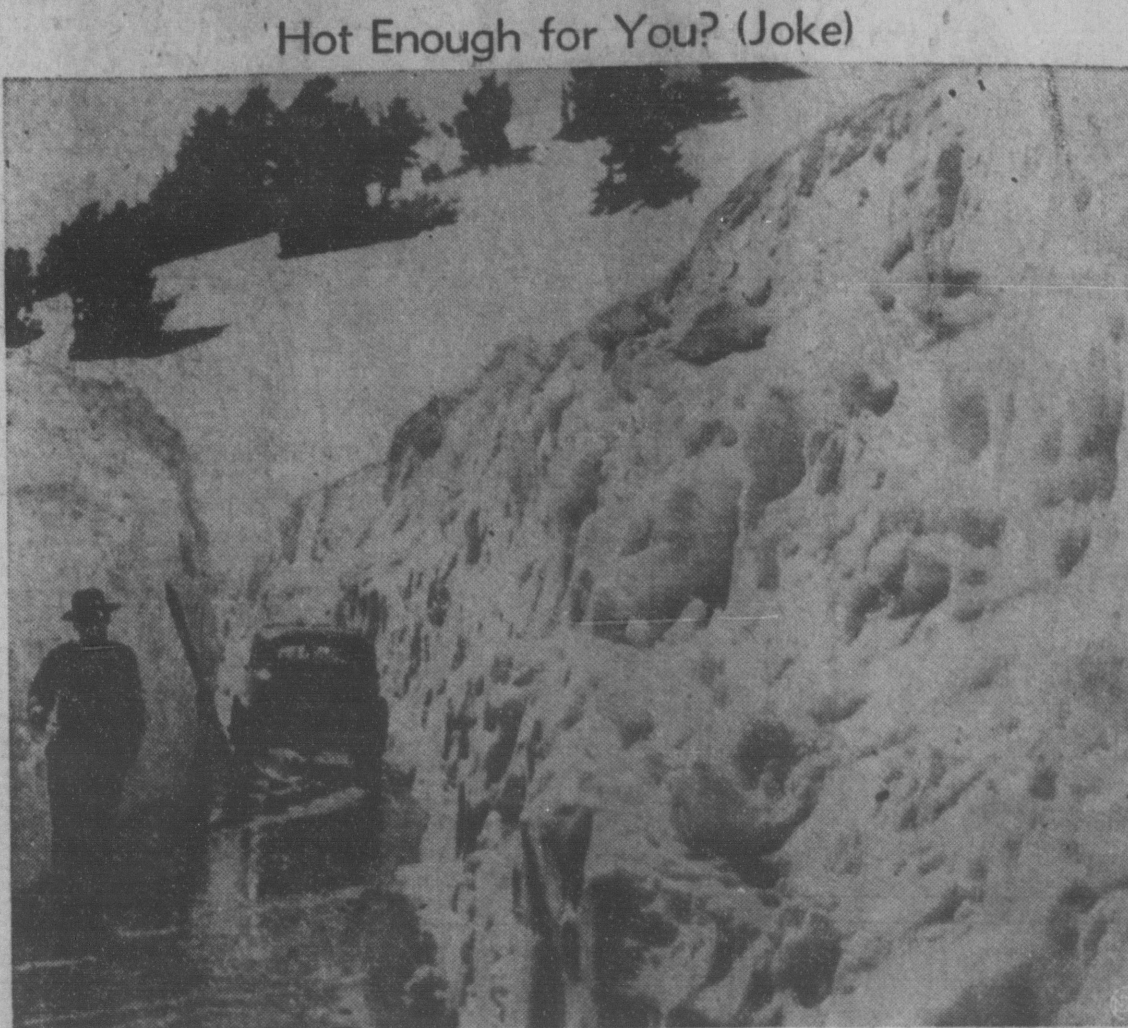

Informed of the call, Pearson Cullen a wire saying that at a Philadelphia hotel June 20 Dewey repeated to Pearson personally "the same general ideas he had expressed at the governors' conference at Portsmouth, even referring to the teachers' lobby as 'damnable black-mail and Hitler's tactics'."

ANOTHER QUIZ DUE
FOR GEN. MEYERS

Will Be Called From Prison
To Testify Before
Committee

BY ROGER D. GREENE
WASHINGTON, July 8—Benjamin E. Meyers, the retired two-star general sent to prison by one congressional quiz session, is due for another.

This one deals with charges of a multi-million-dollar "gouge" of the government through World War II freight bills.

Chairman Bender (R-Ohio) of a house expenditure subcommittee investigating the freight rate matter told a reporter today he will subpoena Meyers from his Chillicothe, Ohio, jail cell before the summer is out.

Meyers was sentenced to from 20 months to five years in prison last winter after his conviction on charges of inducing a former business associate to lie to senators inquiring into his handling of war contracts. The general became deputy purchasing officer for the Army Air forces after a tour of duty at Patterson field.

His name entered the current hearings in testimony by Thomas F. Proctor, a former Justice department official now employed by the post-office department.

Referring to the period just ahead of that covered by the senate war investigating committee in its hearings last summer, Proctor told the Bender group yesterday:

"As long as General Benny Meyers was running the Air forces materiel command at Patterson field, the Army transportation corps and the Air Force traffic people in Washington were relegated to a position of secondary importance in traffic matters."

"This committee could very well direct itself to an investigation into the so-called service contracts which General Meyers negotiated with the oil companies on aviation gasoline during the war."

Proctor did not elaborate, but he told the committee:

"I can assure you the revelations would be most interesting and pertinent to the current inquiry."

Financial Worries Facing
Democrats In '48 Campaign

(By International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 8—Financial worries faced the Democrats today on the eve of their national convention opening in Philadelphia Monday.

Unless there has been a sudden spurt in donations, the convention will open with approximately a quarter million dollars in the Democratic campaign chest.

While this is not "hay," it's only a small kitty as presidential elections go. It is far short of the hope chest already amassed by the Republicans.

Republicans, with more funds constantly pouring in.

In its last financial report to congress, the Democratic national committee stated that its cash balance on June 1 totaled $244,556. In contrast, several weeks later, James S. Kemper, Republican national committee treasurer, revealed that the GCP will have $300,000.

Kemper informed the Republican national committee that as a result of the sizeable bank account already amassed, the Republican candidate "will not have to worry" about initial campaign expenses.

Republican officials were confident they would have no difficulty in collecting the three million dollars which each national committee is limited in expenditures. Four years ago, the committee received $2,999,999.48, just 32 cents under the statutory limit.

The Democrats did well also in 1944 when Franklin D. Roosevelt

Mortgage Filings
In County Increase

LISBON, July 8—Mortgages filed in the office of County Recorder Frances Morton show an increase of $788,140.05 over the previous 12-month period. Cancellations decreased $539,751.12 over last year.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 3,169 mortgages or 320 less than the preceding year were filed, on a total consideration of $12,255,301.48. In the same period 2,286 mortgages were cancelled, 197 less than the previous 12-months, on considerations totalling $6,337,233.83.

Mortgages included 2,303 on town or city lots, at $8,969,997.74 consideration; while cancellations included 1,635 on town or city property, on considerations of $4,395,363.42.

The report also lists 5,527 deeds filed with total considerations of $1,411,576.24, as compared to 5,990 deeds and considerations of $1,281,068.91 the previous year.

Leases filed for record totaled 203 and included 8,796 acres leased for minerals, oil, etc., and 3,668 acres for mineral assignments, both showing considerable decreases over the previous year when 20,244 acres were leased for minerals, oils, etc., and 17,294 acres for mineral assignments.

In recent years, when finances were tighter here, the city did not have funds available to carry out their demands on sidewalk repairs.

During the past two years, however, council's finance committee has appropriated $6,000 each year for this purpose and on this basis the solons plan to see that sidewalks throughout the city are brought to proper condition.

The N. Lincoln ave. project, formerly approved by council at Tuesday's session, is the first step in this program.

BUILDING NEW
PLATFORM WOE
FOR DEMOCRAT

Hear Various Groups As Committee Struggles
Over Rights, Labor

By MAX HALL
PHILADELPHIA, July 8—The CIO today made a hard-pounding demand that the Democrats tie their 1948 campaign to a "Roosevelt platform."

And that was the opening fire-cracker of a day that was expected to get on so noisy with party arguments over civil rights.

The civil rights plank rushed to the forefront as a platform drafting committee of 19 Democrat leaders, preparing for next week's Democratic convention, moved into its second day of public hearings.

CIO Secretary James B. Carey, a little man with a mop of curly hair and a deep determined voice, urged in a statement prepared for delivery that the Democrats pledge:

1. Federal laws against lynching, poll taxes, discrimination in employment, and racial separation in the armed services.

2. Repeat of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

3. Public housing; price controls; health insurance; greater social security; higher minimum wages; federal aid to education an excessive profits tax, and other measures.

Argue Civil Rights

Later in the day half a dozen other witnesses, including some Negro leaders, were to argue for a strong civil rights plank, including the lynching, poll tax, and fair employment laws advocated by President Truman.

Southerners on the committee, for example Alabama's ex-governor Chauncey Sparks and Texas ex-governor Dan Moody, were all set to cross-examine these witnesses.

The CIO (Congress of Industrial Organizations) has not been with-

Jews Reported To Have Accepted New Truce; Arabs Refuse

BULLETIN
RHODES, July 8—Count Folke Bernadotte announced today that the Jews had agreed to an extension of the Palestine truce but the Arabs rejected it.

By MAX BOYD
CAIRO, Egypt, July 8—The Israel high command at Tel Aviv announced today that Egyptian forces "opened an offensive" on the Jewish settlement of Beer Tuvia, 23 miles south of the Jewish capital.

The four-week Palestine truce has less than 24 hours to go. Both sides were known to be preparing to resume fighting.

There was no indication in the Tel Aviv announcement whether the alleged attack was on a large scale or was another of the periodic clashes such as have marked the cease-fire.

The Israel communiqué said the Egyptians were attacking in the direction of Isdud, where an Egyptian spearhead was trapped temporarily before the armistice.

Tel Aviv dispatches said air raid sirens sounded in the Jewish capital shortly after noon, but there were no immediate signs of hostile planes.

Reports from Amman, Trans-Jordan capital, said two U. N. truce observers based there had received orders to leave immediately.

In Tel Aviv, the head of the U. N. truce team, Col. W. B. McCoy of Oxford, Ga., said he was informed by the Israel liaison officer that "the war is on."

Heavily Fortified
The officer told him heavily fortified Beer Tuvia is being attacked by planes, armored cars and artillery.

U. N. truce observers were hastily evacuated from Tel Aviv. All U. N. military personnel left by road convoy for Haifa, there presumably to board American destroyers assigned to the United Nations. Civilian employees, headed by John Reedman, have been ordered to remain in Tel Aviv.

In Cairo, Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the seven nation Arab league, announced that the U. N. mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, has been told officially the Arab countries have "no intention" of extending the truce.

He said the Security Council's 11th hour appeal for an extension had not been received officially by the league from Lake Success.

There has been no official announcement of the Jewish position on the truce extension.

Israeli government sources said they expected the real full-scale war to break out tomorrow.

A dispatch from Jerusalem told of persistent reports among officers of Trans-Jordan's Arab legion that the Jews had heavily increased their armaments in the Holy City. At the beginning of the truce the Arabs held the old walled city of Jerusalem and the Jews held most of the modern city, although it was cut off from Tel Aviv by Arab forces. Legion officers in Jerusalem said they expected the Jews to launch a heavy mortar attack on the old city, scene of many Holy shrines of three great religions. Should this occur, evacuation of the Arab civilians is possible, the dispatch said.

The legion sources said the Jews now had modern medium and heavy bombers, principally from U. S. war surplus, and attacks against Damascus, Syria, and Amman, Trans-Jordan, could be expected. These two cities were struck by minor raids before the truce.

Most of the United States Mediterranean fleet was moving into the Eastern Mediterranean. Three cruisers, two destroyers, a carrier and an escort carrier were headed that way from Istanbul and Naples. But Secretary of Defense Forrestal told a Washington news conference yesterday the movements were according to schedule and had "no significance."

On Spy Hunt
While the truce waned, Jewish forces were on a spy hunt in Jerusalem, a Jewish-Arab battleground in the weeks before the cease-fire.

Reliable sources there said the Israeli army convicted a Palestine Jew, who formerly had served as major in the British army, of spying for the Arabs. He was allowed to kill himself to escape public execution. The informants said the court martial in Tel Aviv handed the defendant a revolver with one cartridge and left him alone.

The extremist Stern group announced it had executed a pretty Jewish woman named Rosa Beiser after she was convicted on charges of supplying military information to a British intelligence agent in the Holy City.

Igrun Zvi Leumi, also an extremist Jewish group, was holding five Britons seized Tuesday night on charges of "intelligence with the enemy."

New Source of Supply Is Goal
Manufacturers Pledge Aid
To City In Water Survey

Salem's water problem—that of finding a new source of supply—was discussed at length at a meeting of the Manufacturers association Wednesday noon in the Lape hotel.

The result was a decision to study all possible sources in an effort to aid city officials in selecting a source which will provide ample supply for future needs.

Clarence White, chairman of the association's water committee, reviewed projects considered by the city in recent years and explained the program now being developed by city council.

Following construction of the new reservoir southwest of the city, wells were drilled near that basin but it was soon evident that they were draining the supply from one another.

The next move, which council has authorized, is the drilling of wells about two miles south of the reservoir. A later step will be drilling of wells some two miles south of that field, leading in the general direction of Cold Run from which a surface supply can be obtained.

The last step would mean construction of a dam to impound the Cold Run waters and a treatment plant at that location.

The association gave a nod of approval to the Community Scholarship fund but agreed that donations be made by individual companies, instead of by the association.

The plan, to raise $4,000 this year to aid college students, was submitted by Secretary S. A. Gonda. He explained that the ultimate goal is a fund of $15,000 or $20,000.

Strader Is Court Judge In Wurzburg

Paul Strader, Jr., former Salem attorney and one-time candidate for mayor, was released from active duty June 15 at Wurzburg, Germany, as captain in the U. S. Army to accept a civilian position as a court judge for one year for the U. S. military government in Wurzburg and vicinity.

Strader served as legal officer at Wurzburg after the end of the Dachau war crime trials. As an AMG judge, he has the authority to sentence Germans to one year imprisonment, impose a fine of $5,000 or both for violations of occupation laws or the re-enacted German code.

The former Salem man has jurisdiction over dependents of U. S. military personnel. There are 49 such judges in Bavaria and all are American attorneys. He will also sit on the bench of the intermediate and general courts in this zone.

"German judges try few cases so American judges are very busy," Strader writes.

Arriving at Wurzburg, Strader met Capt. John P. Roth of Salem. Capt. Roth is personnel adjutant of the Wurzburg post. He separated Capt. Strader from the Army.

In preparation for his new position, Strader spent two weeks in Munich. He will reside with his wife and son, Claude, at Wurzburg.

A Remote Possibility

Automobiles were jammed bumper to bumper for blocks. When they moved, the motion was sluggish and disjointed. It was like trying to dance on an overcrowded dance floor.

The usual swirls and eddies were being created by vehicles pulling into and away from the curbs to pick up passengers, that being one of the fixed functions of busses and passenger cars. Horns hanked and drivers cursed. Fenders were bruised and tempers ruffled. Traffic policemen threaded their way through the mixup, helpless to do anything about it. No one could do anything about it. The root of the trouble was too many vehicles in too small a space. A curbstone observer said:

"We have regulations about overcrowding public buildings—so many people and no more. But when it comes to automobiles, we defy all common sense rules of safety and convenience. We let drivers jam them in and trust to luck that somehow they'll be able to get them out. It looks to me as if it would be smarter to put up the velvet ropes on some of our congested streets, occasionally and keep any more cars from being jammed in until the cars already caught in the jam can wriggle out. It looks to me as if the cheapest and easiest way to solve the problem of traffic congestion would be to regulate the flow of traffic in the first place, instead of trying to handle it catch-as-catch-can. But that's only a remote possibility, I suppose because . . ."

The sentence was never finished. A car swerved as its driver tried to avoid being sideswiped by a bus. The curbstone observer had to scramble to get out of the way. Horns honked, drivers cursed and there was the expensive screech of a bumper tearing $125 of streamlined beauty out of one of the new models with built-in fenders.

Fun On A Log

Gladstone, Mich., held the national birling contests this week.

No, birling isn't what is done to water in Brooklyn. It's an old lumberjack sport wherein two opponents balance and rotate a floating log, each trying to toss off the other. Next to skiers and bathing beauties, newsreel cameramen like birlers best.

Birling is an appropriate pastime for this age. In a sense all of us are birlers. The adept birlir never makes a misstep, anticipates his opponent's moves and constantly keeps shifting his weight to preserve his balance. The sure foot and, the rapid reflex win. The inept birlir tumbles in the drink.

There are many birlers on the world scene. In Berlin, Gen. Clay is birling to beat the band. Tito is an old hand at birling, and now a new opponent has stepped onto his log. Harry Truman is going to do some fancy birling in Philadelphia next week. That contest they held in Gladstone was just one kind of birling.

It Doesn't Seem To Matter

If there were a Pulitzer prize for the most interesting report on the least important subject of the year, it would belong to the newspaperman who found out that the leg paint business is collapsing.

The long look—the new one, not the old one the boys used to give the girls when they walked past the poolroom—has hidden so much of the female leg that there's only an occasional market for the makeup preparations almost everybody was using two summers ago. In fact, according to the reporter who dug up the information that the "bottled stocking" business is sagging, most women now are wearing stockings.

This is very interesting. It is an important thing to know. Though it doesn't seem to matter what women wear on their legs if the legs are draped in the long look. It's possible some of them may be wearing hip boots. If so, who cares—except some reporter looking for a new angle on an old subject?

Two Years To Oblivion

The two-year Communist plan for absorbing Berlin into the Soviet occupation zone of Germany is an admission of weakness. If it were ordinary psychological warfare being waged between the Soviet union and the western powers, the advantage would lie with them. In effect, the Kremlin has told Berliners that they have two years to go before oblivion in the Soviet union, barring the remote possibility of rescue by the western powers.

But this isn't ordinary psychological warfare. Russia doesn't care how much credit the western powers may get for trying to beat the blockade of Berlin as long as it succeeds in absorbing the city into its economic and political system. The Kremlin is successfully tightening a rule of terror on the Berlin area. It holds the city's population as hostages, warning them that those who show sympathy for the western powers will be punished.

The United States and its western allies can't supply Berlin from the air indefinitely. They can only try at great cost to offset some of the effects of the Russian blockade, hoping against hope that something may turn up to avert the clash of arms which the Kremlin seems determined to precipitate.

Land Reform: Phase Two

After the Russian conquest of Hungary in 1945, one of the first acts of the provisional government was to divide the big private estates into small peasant holdings. Now the government announces it will begin collectivization of these holdings.

Thus Hungarian land reform starts on the course it has followed in Russia, where cooperatives gave way to state farms with the farmers no more than hired labor.

One of Russia's most different tasks was the liquidation of the land-holding Kulaks. Marshal Tito's failure to liquidate this land-holding class is reportedly one of the reasons the Cominform has denounced him. Now the Hungarian peasants, who have had a few years on land they hoped they could call their own, will be ordered to surrender these tracts.

Land reform admittedly is badly needed in several European countries. But land reform on the Communist plan isn't a division of the big estates. It is simply transferring them to state control.

Putting Gold In Circulation

Dr. Walter E. Spahr, executive vice president of the Economists' National Committee on Monetary Policy, believes Uncle Sam should take the lock off Fort Knox and begin paying gold in demand. He says this would set an example for other countries and give an impetus to world trade.

At present gold is used as a super-currency for paper transactions between governments. The United States keeps most of it. With the United States as the great creditor nation, most gold probably would stay here in restrictions were removed.

Dr. Spahr's idea isn't new. A bill authorizing it was introduced in the last congress. U. S. gold certificates don't mean what they say because they can't be redeemed for gold. We have more than $300,000,000 of "United States notes" in circulation with no authority on record to account for issuance of this money.

Advocated of putting gold back in circulation can make out a fair case for their side, but before any action is taken it will have to be a compelling one.

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

EXCEPTIONAL opportunities for advancement, promotion, preferment with pleasant as well as profitable relations in all fields of endeavor, are shown under a most expansive and far-reaching reign of leading planets.

Professional, cultural, financial and business matters share benign and gratifying adventures with domestic, affectional, social and public interests. The outstanding feature of this benefic state is the substantial reward of merit, with security, increased possessions and basic foundations for enduring worth and returns.

There is no need to be discouraged by minor delays, obstacles or surprising developments, but do not jeopardize brilliant prospects by runaway emotions or wild urges.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a prolonged period of advancement, promotion, tokens of honor and preferment from those generously ready to reward and show esteem for solid labors, perhaps against impediments, obstacles, delays or handicaps.

There may be surprises as well, involving new ways and means perhaps changed environs or associations, but it would be unwise to block benignant prospects and openings by too ardent or eager feelings or emotions, personal or ambitious.

A child born on this day is excellently endowed, for a successful and honored career, its earnest, diligent and clever efforts bringing rich rewards and personal happiness as well.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

A Tropical Disease Found In U. S.

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
There are many diseases that are likely to be overlooked because we don't expect them to turn up in our part of the world. One of these is amebiasis or amebic dysentery. For many years this disease, which is caused by infection with a parasite known as endamoeba histolytica, was thought to be confined to the tropics.

Today we know that this is far from true and yet few people would credit current estimates that almost 10 per cent of the people in the United States harbor this parasite in the intestinal tract.

There are two reasons for this unawareness of what constitutes a very real threat to our national health; first, that in many individuals the parasite may be present without causing symptoms; second, that even when symptoms are present, they may be mistakenly ascribed to other disorders.

The disease may be transmitted from one person to another by water or food contaminated with the cysts of the parasite. These cysts develop in the intestine, each forming four small endamoeba. These nest themselves in the little depressions of the lining membrane of the large intestine, sometimes forming small abscesses which may enlarge to form ulcers.

The symptoms due to the infection vary. In some cases, as I have mentioned, there may be no symptoms at all. In other instances, there may be mild irritation of the intestines, with a feeling of tiredness and sickness.

In other cases, the symptoms are worse, resembling those of appendicitis or ulcer of the stomach or gallbladder disease. In still other instances, there may be severe diarrhea, with gripping pains and blood in the bowel movements.

Since the endamoeba may get into the liver and form abscesses, symptoms may occur suggesting the possibility of abscess with fever, pain, and tenderness in the liver area. Now and then the parasites may be carried to the lungs, brain, kidneys or skin.

To make a definite diagnosis of amebiasis, the parasites or their cysts must be found in the bowel movements. In making the examination, it is important to have a fresh warm stool specimen.

Tube With Light

Sometimes the proctoscope, which is a tube with a light, may be passed into the lower bowel and same material from the edge of the ulcers of the bowel removed and examined for the presence of the amebiasis.

Once the diagnosis is made, the patient should be put to bed and treatment started. Fortunately, various iodine and arsenic-containing preparations are employed in the treatment with remarkable results.

In cases in which liver abscesses are present, emetine is employed. Emetine should not be used in patients with heart disease and, when the emetine is used, the patient must be confined to bed.

Persons who have symptoms like those of amebic dysentery should have a careful study made to determine whether or not this disorder is present. This is of great importance, not only to their own health but to that of others to whom they may unwittingly pass the disease.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

M. N. H.: My feet, hands and nose are always cold. What does this indicate?

Answer: Such symptoms may be due to a disturbance of the circulation. They may also result from a thyroid deficiency.

A thorough study to determine the cause would be necessary before treatment could be prescribed.

Letters to Dr. Bundesen should be addressed in care of 235 E. 45th St., New York City.

Texans Yield To an Urge To Adopt Children

FORT WORTH, Tex.—Adoption applications here show a considerable increase over 1947 and preceding years. On the average, the applications number one daily.

Several petitions seeking adoption of twins have been filed, while one request was granted for adoption of three children. The largest number involved was a case where a widower sought to adopt five children three boys and two girls.

COLUMBIANA COUNCIL CONSIDERS EXTENSION OF NORTH ELM STREET

COLUMBIANA, July 8—A survey for a proposed extension of N. Elm st. from E. Salem st. to County Line st. was submitted to city council Tuesday evening, and the street committee was instructed to look over the proposed route.

The survey was made by Resident Engineer George Gonzales of Lisbon, who has charge of the engineering in the construction of the Route 7 highway bridge over the Pennsylvania railroad, east of town.

Council instructed the solicitor to draft an ordinance for parallel on the west side of Main st., which it is anticipated will be necessary on account of the detoured traffic from Route 7. Parallel parking on the east side of Main st. has been in effect for the last year.

Street Contract Let

A bid of 31 cents a square yard by McCartney & Samsell of Youngstown for putting seal coats on several streets was accepted, the work to be completed by Aug. 14. The contractors expect, however, to have the work done before the end of July. Streets to be treated are E. and W. Friend, James, Herber, Pearl and Prospect. The total cost will be $5,080.

A drainage problem was brought to the attention of council by Carl Souder in connection with cellar excavations for new houses on N. Court st. extension. Water Works Superintendent Homer Harrold was instructed to investigate.

An ordinance was passed providing for the sweeping and cleaning of Main street from the first alley north of the public square south to Union street.

Paint Job Awarded

A contract was awarded Donald Snyder for painting the municipal storage building on W. Friend st. His bid was $245.

Solicitor Oakes reported to council that the court has denied a motion for a new trial in the damage case of Mrs. Vida Thomas against the municipality, in which a jury returned a verdict some time ago in favor of the city.

July 20 was the date set for a public hearing on the municipal budget for 1949.

Returning To California

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tesean, who have been making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sensenbacher, near New Springfield, will leave Wednesday to take up their residence again in California.

Disposal Plant Inspected

C. C. Hommon of Canton, Columbiana sanitary engineer, was in town Tuesday evening and in company with the board of public affairs inspected the sewage disposal plant.

Measures are being taken to overcome the odors complained of by residents of the west end of town. The board has been considering for the last three years a major change in the sewage disposal facilities, which have become inadequate for the rapid growth of the town. Material shortages have delayed the project.

A survey will be made to determine the needs, not only of the present but of future growth over a period of years.

Miss Lois Ellene Calvin of Greenford selected a beautiful costume of white tulle for her marriage to Jack Edgar Emch of Youngstown at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Locust Grove Baptist church.

Designed with an off the shoulder mode, the bride's gown had a fitted bodice attached to a hoop skirt. A tulle of seed pearls and orange blossoms held her finger-tip veil in place. She wore mits to match and carried a prayer book topped with white orchids and showered with white ribbon.

Rev. E. L. Greer, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms and ferns and centered with a large bouquet of white gladioli. It was flanked with white candles in tall seven-branch candelabra.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Harry Roller played the musical prelude on the solovox and piano. Mrs. Roger Ziegler of R. D. Salem, sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "Always."

AUDITOR VICTOR IN PHONE BATTLE

COLUMBUS, July 8—State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson claimed victory today in the battle of the switchboard.

The only elected Democrat in the state house announced that a direct telephone line between Ohio Republican headquarters, 17 N. High st., and the state office building switchboard has been disconnected.

Ferguson said he learned the line was taken out "about a month ago" on orders of State GOP Chairman Fred Johnson.

"No comment," said Johnson when asked what caused disconnection of the line. It had been in since February of 1947.

Auditor Ferguson said he was releasing immediately $33,712 to Ohio Bell Telephone Co. for service at the office building switchboard since April 1. He stopped payments on all office building extensions when he first learned about the direct line, and insisted he would not pay the bills until the line was disconnected.

Johnson claimed at that time that the Republican party paid $2.50 a month for use of the line, and that it cost the state nothing. Ohio Bell executives agreed with Johnson. Furthermore, said the telephone company, anyone who wants to call have a direct line to the office building switchboard. The switchboard, Ohio Bell said, is owned by the telephone company and manned by telephone company employees.

Granted Raise

CLYDE, July 8—Some 1,200 production employees of the Clyde Porcelain Steel Corp. were granted 10-cent hourly "cost of living" wage increases yesterday. Salaried workers received $2 weekly increases.

out influence in Democratic councils during the last dozen years.

Today it threw its challenge of a "Roosevelt platform" into a Roosevelt-less party ripped by dissension. There was probably no chance that the party with its clashing factions would agree with every phase of the CIO program.

But there were signs that some outspoken party leaders were eager to make a fighting campaign on a social-conscious platform.

Yesterday, the platform drafting committee gave Morris Sayre, president of the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), a rough afternoon indeed.

Sayre presented the identical program he had offered the Republican platform committee last month. The Republicans did not ask him a single question. Yesterday the Democrats bounced question and criticisms at him for nearly two hours. Senator Theodore Green of Rhode Island told Sayre: "You were hoping, I suppose, that the Democrats would adopt your program and lose the campaign in consequence."

Milk Bottles in Truck Survive Train Collision

FORT WORTH, Tex.—Bernard Berliner, 32, rode a miracle on wheels.

He had snacks and drinks for sale in a panel truck and was nearing a railroad crossing. He watched a northbound train approach and drove on. But he didn't see the southbound train on the other track. Berliner jumped and escaped injury. The truck was knocked down an embankment into a fence and damaged to the extent of $150. Not one of the 400 bottles of milk inside was broken.

Columbus Police, Fire Workers To Get Raises

COLUMBUS, July 8—Police and firemen here may get a 23 percent wage increase but if they do, department officials said today, recent resignation threats won't be the reason for it.

Police Chief Charles M. Berry and Fire Chief Walter G. Strickfaden recommended the 23 percent figure to Mayor James A. Rhodes yesterday. The mayor took the plan "under advisement."

Last month, 178 police and firemen said they would submit resignations, effectively July 8, unless granted a $50 monthly pay boost and uniform allowances. City councilmen subsequently approved the uniform allowance.

The 178 withdrew their resignation threat last week.

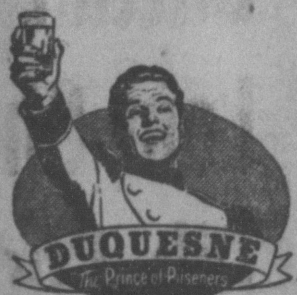

The proposed increase would raise the pay of first-year men from $206.50 a month to $254.

Don't Argue In Summer If You Want To Remain Cool, Medical Authority Warns

By MICHAEL O'NEILL, JR.
United Press Staff Correspondent
CHICAGO—If you want to stay cool this summer, keep your shirt on.

Fuming at the boss or feuding with the wife is just asking a heat wave to knock you for a loop, Dr. Edward H. Piszczek of the Chicago Medical society said today.

"Emotional stresses and strains send temperatures soaring," he said. "Nothing could be worse during hot weather. The first rule of keeping cool is to be mentally calm."

Piszczek suggested that arguments should always be settled in cool weather. It's not only easier to settle them peaceably then, he said, but much more healthy.

There are a lot of ways to buck hot weather, he said, but some of them are bad. He said the theory of dunking one's head in a bucket of water or cooling off wrists is far from effective.

"Head dunking and wrist cooling provide some local relief," he said, "but they do not cool off the whole body and that leaves you still plenty hot."

Piszczek said swallowing ice, drinking too many cold liquids and lying in front of a fan are other methods that do more harm than good.

Instead of these things, Piszczek suggests some of the following steps to keep cool:

Eat light foods. Four or five light meals are preferable to two or three heavy ones.

Wear as few clothes as possible, but keep the body protected from the sun.

Avoid alcoholic beverages. Stay away from too much strong sunlight.

Increase your consumption of salt. Get plenty of sleep.

"And one of the most important ways to keep cool," said Piszczek, "is to loaf as much as possible. To do this efficiently, one should loiter in the shade rather than the sun."

"A lazy man is practically immune from heat," he said.

was their candidate for President, raising a kitty of $2,562,764. Neither committee spent all the money it took in.

What was worrying the Democrats this year, however, was whether they could raise enough for the 1948 campaign to finance such expensive items as radio speeches, television, speakers, convention halls, etc.

Dearth of Democratic funds already has brought one headache. President Truman came under a welter of criticism for his recent tour of the nation, billed by the White House as "non-political." Republicans in and out of congress said it was strictly political and several GOP leaders accused him of using public funds to further his candidacy for re-election.

JOSEPH M. RABALIO
LISBON, July 8—Joseph M. Rabalio, 51, of 317 E. Washington st., died in Salem City hospital Wednesday night, a few hours after being admitted. He is thought to have suffered a stroke Wednesday morning.

Born in Belton, Pa., Feb. 28, 1897, he was the son of Salvatore and Mary Rabalio. He lived in this vicinity for about 30 years. He was a potter by trade, a member of St. George's Catholic church, the Moose and Eagles lodges.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Rose Cornelli of Lisbon, Mrs. Margaret Borghi of Lisbon and Miss Virginia Rabalio of Lisbon.

Friends may call at the family home Friday afternoon or evening. Funeral service will be held at 9 a. m. Saturday at St. George's, in charge of Rev. Fr. Paul McNally. Burial will be in Lisbon cemetery.

LAW SAYS THEY CAN'T GO HOME

THEY'RE WITHIN WAVING DISTANCE of home, but Mrs. Isabella Simmons and her daughter, Mrs. Gloria Naylor, San Francisco (foreground), can't go in. So Edward H. Simmons (arrow), husband and father of the two women, has the run of the apartment. The building, it seems, changed hands while Simmons was on a business trip. The new owners evicted the mother and daughter, but forgot to mention papa. He moved in. When they tried it they were jailed for five days and fined $100. (International)

CRESCENT PLANT AGAIN OPERATING

LEETONIA, July 8—Employees of the Crescent Machine division of the Rockwell Mfg. Co. resumed work Wednesday after a shut-down for one week during which time inventory was taken of material and equipment in the plant.

The Leetonia Tool Co. plant is closed this week for vacations.

Mrs. Carl Blattman entertained contract bridge club members at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Paul H. Beaver, son of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Beaver, who has been attending U. C. L. A. at Los Angeles, is spending summer vacation at his home.

Mrs. Paul Graybill and children of Walled Lake, Mich., are visiting er parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Grove and sister, Mrs. Michael Novojosky.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Baker and daughter, Dorothy Jean of Warren were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson. Mrs. Albert Weikart and daughter Marylin of Washingtonville were Monday guests at the Jackson home. Marylin remained for a visit.

Check Death

LORAIN, July 8—Identity of a middle-aged man whose body was recovered from Lake Erie a few miles west of here remained a mystery today.

Officials were unable to determine whether death resulted from natural causes or from violence. Another coroner Henry C. Marsico said the man was about 55.

U. S. officials estimated the public utilities in the western sectors normally use a minimum of 5,000 tons of coal daily. The U. S. Air Force flew in 210 tons yesterday when it began "flying coalman" operations, but these flights were expected to be stepped up.

A British transport pilot reported sighting five Russian Yak fighter planes in the British corridor. One of the Soviet fighters "peeled off and flew within a comparatively close vicinity" of the transport, a British headquarters announcer said. The British military government explained it attached "no importance or significance" to the report.

Will's Hospitality Isn't "Cracked"!

Ever since January, Will Dudley planned to give his living room that "new look"—planned to carefully refinish the woodwork and replaster the walls.

Every time Will got out the putty to start filling in the cracks, a neighbor stopped by to pass the time of day—and first thing you know, there was a group of us helping Will do the job up right. After Will called a halt to the evening's work, we'd sit around the fire enjoying a friendly argument and a sparkling glass of mellow beer.

So Will's living room doesn't look like it did a year ago—but it's by far the most "livable" living room I know! A place you can always drop in for good talk, good beer, and a warm welcome.

From where I sit, so long as Will puts that atmosphere of hospitality and good fellowship ahead of everything else, we'll all be happy to help Will change the look of his living room any time he wants.

Veal breast is an economy buy. It can be used with delicious results in a biscuit-topped pie flavored with spring vegetables.

Biscuit-Topped Veal Pie
(Serves 4)
One pound boneless veal breast, salt, pepper, flour, 2 tablespoons drippings, 8 small new potatoes, 1 cup shelled peas (1 pound unshelled).

Cut veal in pieces, season, dredge with flour and brown in drippings. Add 1 cup of water and cook until almost tender. Add scraped potatoes and peas and cook until tender. Serve in a casserole and top with well-browned biscuit squares.

Biscuits

Two cups flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons fat, 1/2 to 2-3 cup milk. Sift dry ingredients, cut in fat and add liquid to make a soft dough. Mix well, roll out, cut in squares and bake. This makes about 12 squares—enough to top casserole, and some to serve hot with currant jelly.

Two low-cost plentifuls are the major ingredients of this delicious peanut-orange quick bread.

Peanut-Orange Quick Bread
One-half cup orange marmalade, 1 cup chopped peanuts, 2 cups sifted flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 to 1-2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons fat, 1 1-4 cups milk, 1 egg.

Sift dry ingredients together, work in fat. Beat egg with milk and mix with marmalade. Stir this mixture into the first mixture. Add chopped peanuts and blend. Pour into a lightly greased loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 1 hour.

Marine Father Delivers Baby in Flurry of Traffic

WASHINGTON—Marine Lt. Clifford McCollam, 25, didn't go through the usual futile pacing of an expectant father when his second daughter, Candida, was born here. He had to deliver the seven-pound girl in an ambulance speeding through heavy Washington traffic. "Candida was clamoring to be born, so I just did it myself," he said. "I was too busy to be excited."

He said his wife, Mellicie, 21, started out in the ambulance for the 22-mile trip to the Bethesda naval hospital, but Candida began to "clamor" as the ambulance weaved through the business district at speeds up to 60 miles an hour.

Boyle's COLUMN

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—A lady I know works in a warehouse of raw materials. It is one of the vast hospitals built in the city to filter its ill and misfits. Here they find a quiet bed against the final darkness—end of every three who enters is under the shadow of death—or a refuge from a life crisis that cracks their minds.

The lady sees them come and go by the hundreds. She says her work each day is like reading an unfinished novel by Charles Dickens or Leo Tolstoy.

And she told me of one case in which she tried to help write a happy ending:

One patient was a small, elderly man, grateful for her kindness. He was ill and had been picked up in an intoxicated condition, but she soon was convinced he wasn't a true alcoholic.

One day he told her his story: "Many years ago my wife died," he said. "We had four children. I had hard luck and couldn't take care of them. I just didn't have the money. I put them in a religious institution—and then, well, I guess I just went to pieces. I faded out of the picture."

The old man left the hospital shortly afterward. A few days later the lady noticed his name again on a roster of new mental patients. But the age was much younger.

Curious, she went to see the patient. He was in his twenties, but bore such a strong resemblance to the older man that she was certain immediately he was a son.

She tried to talk to him, but his mind was deep behind the velvet curtain that cloaks the schizophrenic from reality. She checked his record and found that a sister was listed as his closest relative.

Excited at the possibility of reuniting the family, she got in touch with the sister. A short talk with the woman convinced her that she really had found the son and daughter of the old man.

Diplomatically she brought up the possibility of arranging a meeting with the father.

"What is he like—my father?" the daughter asked. "I don't remember him. As a girl in the orphan's home I used to wonder about him." My friends told her that he was old and tired, that he had seemed to her a kindly man and that his long-ago destitution still preyed on his mind.

The daughter thought it over. Then she said:

"I guess I don't want to see him now. It's too late. The other two children are gone. My brother and I are the only ones left, and I have to worry about him."

And she said bitterly:

"We've been orphans so long we might as well stay that way."

I asked the lady if the daughter had inquired her father's address.

"No."

"Aren't you going to get in touch with the old man and let him know what you found?"

"Have I any right to?" said the lady. "Would you?"

POLICE LOCATE HOBO JUNGLE IN TOUCHY LOCATION

(By Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, July 8—Police hastily organized a raid on a hobo jungle here—when they discovered it sprawled beneath the first precinct police station.

To their amazement, they found yesterday a mass of passageways honeycombed underneath the old building, with electricity, water and steam heat conduits tapped for transient tramps.

The only hobo captured was a fellow found reclining on a mattress and reading a magazine under a brilliant light.

On a promise of immunity, he volunteered:

"That the place was known as 'Hotel De Bastille.'"

It had been in existence for months, perhaps years.

"Guests" entered the haven nightly with amazing simplicity.

It is accessible from 10 to 12 vents in the sides of the structure. Bushes shield the entrances.

Desk Sgt. Edward Fallon climbed through the many tunnels, with the hobo as guide, and patrolmen at his heels.

Old clothing, liquor bottles and other evidences of tramp lodgings were found.

Police Capt. Arthur Marullo, who was unable to squeeze his ample bulk through some of the narrow tunnels, said it was "easily possible" for underworld elements to have found sanctuary there for years.

Their unidentified guide even pointed out the "Royal Suite" containing a neatly dusted davenport, a bad lamp, lights strung to the police station wiring and a supply of food.

IT'S THE KNACK OF ADOLPH KNOERZER and others like him—added to superb ingredients and modern equipment—that makes Burkhardt's the beer that most people like best. Here Adolph keeps an eye on delicate filtering processes. Read his story below.

Knoerzer's knack bought him a home

Adolph Knoerzer's knack for brewing hails from Heidelberg. There, deep in the heart of Germany, he was apprenticed in a brewing trade. He prospered and married, and in 1925 brought his bride to the United States.

In Akron he met old friends and made new ones, and welded both closer to him with his golden voice. Beethoven . . . Mendelssohn . . . the great songs of the good old tradition roll from his gifted throat at his work, in his home and when he's featured in the songfests of the Akron Liedertafel.

Truly gifted is Adolph Knoerzer—both with his voice and with his knack for the brewing art. He joined Burkhardt's seven years ago and has been responsible for many jobs that go to make fine beer.

Pictured above, he's watching the pressure gauge that keeps him posted on the wort filtering job inside the brilliant stainless steel tanks on the platform. When it comes out of the filters, he wants it a beautiful amber, as clear as the finest crystal.

"What is wort?" you might ask Adolph.

"Well, it's pure water with dextrin and maltose, proteins, hops (for that heart-of-the-hops flavor), and mineral salts. And most of these are in the finest foods." He knows his brewing.

If you compliment Adolph on the cleanliness of his filters, he'll tell you, "Yah, but you should see the inside, too. Cleaner than my wife's pots and pans. I tell her. Wait a minute—I'll show you."

He's proud to do it, too. Just as proud as he is of the new home he just bought . . . of his married daughter and his son . . . of his wife . . . and of the favorite dish she serves him for special occasions. Good winners and quakers.

We at Burkhardt's are proud, too. We're proud of the fine ingredients that go into these good brews, but they're available to any brewer.

So we're even more proud of the skill of our men. It's the extra-added to superb ingredients—that gives Burkhardt's its lip-smacking goodness, its delicious real-hops flavor that most people like best.

MACKENZIE'S Column

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

THE BATTLE of Berlin between Russia and the Western Allies—pivotal engagement of the cold war—is moving sharply towards a show-down.

The blunt demand made by America, Britain and France that the Reds immediately lift the food blockade against the civilian population of Western Berlin is calculated to bring things to a head. This blockade of course represents a savagely impressive was the announcement in Washington that the ambassadors of Canada and five Western European nations had been called into conference with Undersecretary of State Lovett. The five Europeans are Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg, which recently formed an alliance. These conversations will have to do with possible American military support for the Western European bloc.

This is the first time that Canada has been brought into discussions between the bloc and Washington, but her inclusion is a natural one since her defensive interests interlock with those of the United States and Britain. Solidarity between Canada and America is vital to the well-being of the Western Hemisphere.

Whatever official attitude may be taken by Moscow towards the demand from the democracies that the Berlin blockade be lifted, there can be small doubt that the general European situation provides an anxious moment for the Muscovites.

THE DEFIANCE and dislike being registered by the three satellite states comes from countries which are strategic points in Russia's battle front through Europe. Finland and Yugoslavia are the anchors for the northern and southern wings respectively. Czechoslovakia was designed by the Reds to be the strong point of the center.

These signs of weakness developing in the Bolshevik battle-line certainly don't lend strength to the Russian campaign against the Western Allies in Germany. When the battle line still seemed unimpaired it was quite clear that Moscow was prepared to force the issue against the western powers by all means short of actual gunfire. Russia hasn't wanted war, but in order to further the Red revolution in Europe she has been willing to take many risks in an effort to browbeat the democracies.

The Allied notes calling for an end to the food blockade should force the Soviet to disclose whether it has carried its challenge as far as seems smart at this juncture.

Still Says 'No'

Just when a "draft-the-for-president" movement was beginning to gather steam in Democratic ranks, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said he "could not accept nomination for any public office or participate in partisan political contests." This is his latest picture.

TEACHERS REPORT ON OWN AID FOR FOREIGN NATIONS

By RICHARD H. SMITH

CLEVELAND, July 8—American teachers, under their own "professional Marshall plan," have given $274,000 and more than 100,000 books to teachers around the world, it was reported today.

The report was made by Lyle W. Ashby, chairman of the National Education association's committee for overseas teacher relief. Ashby told 3,500 delegates to the NEA's annual convention that the idea started with Miami, Fla., teachers last summer and got underway in state and local associations in October. Since then, he said, more than $250,000 given by American teachers has been spent for food, clothing, books and scholarships for their fellow teachers in 30 countries.

Breakdown Made

He gave this breakdown for distribution of the first quarter million dollars received:

$10,000 for care, food and clothing packages to teachers in Europe.

$15,000 for special care package to teachers in the Philippines.

$10,000 in care food packages for Japanese teachers and $2,500 for Korean teachers.

$30,000 for distribution to the 3,000 neediest teachers in the Szechuan province of China, and $5,000 for China's two major teacher associations.

$15,000 for new books to go to all war devastated countries and $30,000 for distributing to these nations 100,000 books donated.

$45,000 to provide teachers of war-ravaged countries scholarships for study in America.

A flood of grateful letters has poured into the NEA from teachers who received packages with notes describing the gift as "a token of the good will of all of the teachers of the United States to all of the teachers in your country."

Mahoning's Elm Trees Are Disease Threatened

Elm trees in Youngstown and Mahoning county appeared doomed to the ravages of the Dutch elm disease today, after a ruling by Ohio Attorney General Hugh S. Jenkins. He gave an opinion to Mahoning County Prosecuting Attorney William A. Ambrose that county commissioners have no authority to use public funds to purchase spraying equipment needed to halt the tree disease.

Such spraying, he ruled, is the duty of the State Department of Agriculture and must be done at the expense of owners of the property where the trees grow. Many of the trees line the right-of-way on county roads, but are on private property.

Youngstown officials hoped the county would purchase the equipment so that the city could lease it for use against diseased trees.

DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION

With the pleasant memory of a splendid 1947 football season still mellow in the minds of Salemites, the sale of season tickets for the approaching football program at Reilly stadium is surprising everyone, including Faculty Manager Fred Cope.

The tickets were put out at the downtown outlets in June again this year and the arrangement has worked even more successfully than last season, when Cope's highest expectations were surpassed.

Apparently Coach Ben Barrett, veteran Salem mentor, is going to be on the spot again this year, for the fans evidently will be jamming the stadium every game. Crowds last season were near capacity at all games and seats were at a premium for all the major contests.

Ben is optimistic about his recruits this season, but like all football coaches, his optimism can be expected to diminish as the season draws near. Coaches, for many reasons, get "bluer" and "bluer" as that first game approaches.

However, Barrett, who has never had much trouble developing a better-than-average line, will have just that as his major problem again this season. Almost the entire backfield from 1947 is returning, together with a worthwhile smattering of efficient line hopefuls.

The planning for the coming season is already formulated in Ben's mind. A football coach thinks football from November '47 August and then proceeds to practice what he has accumulated in that period. Ben is no exception.

EXPERIMENT DEPT.

Salem, never a raving fight town mainly because there was enough room to attract the fans, will have an opportunity to glimpse some amateur boxers in action out in the fresh air instead of in the rather close confines of the Memorial building.

The event, slated at the Salem A. C. baseball diamond Friday evening, July 16, has been arranged by Scott Chisholm, who is trying to bring some of the city's best recreational entertainment to his new center.

Chisholm is working with George Bolen, a former heavyweight, from amateurs functioning out of Cleveland, who now has a stable of amateurs functioning out of Cleveland. The feature of the evening, as far as a host of Salem fans are concerned, will be the bout between Salem's Jimmy Quinn, a 126-pound lad who went great guns in the Youngstown Golden Gloves last winter, and Tommy Salem, an Avon A. C. boy from Cleveland.

Quinn drew a lot of praise from several Quaker boxings fans when he performed in Youngstown and the local showing will give more of his followers a chance to see him go.

The idea appears to be a good one, for Chisholm plans to be able to handle at least 1,000 fans at this outdoor arena that evening.

The ring will be placed directly in front of the present permanent baseball stands (seating about 200) and chairs and temporary bleachers.

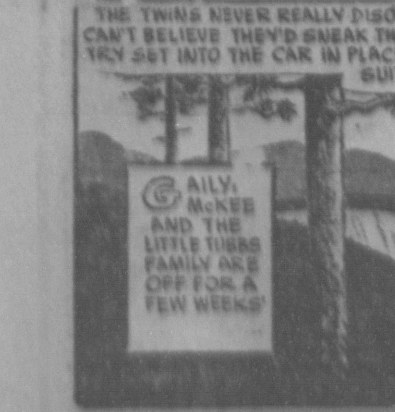

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

will be arranged around the ring. If the idea goes over, Chisholm hopes to sponsor several more bouts here this summer.

ODDS AND ENDS

A quartet of track fans anxious to watch Harrison Dillard and the other stars in action, is taking off from Salem tonight for the U. S. Olympic finals at Dyche stadium at Evanston, Ill. . . . The events run Friday and Saturday and will determine the U. S. team scheduled to leave for London later this month. . . . Included in the four are Bob Dixon, Jim Gregg, Ed Pukalski and Leroy Green. Fred Cope may join the group. . . . He is sulking because he can't go to London.

HANOVERTON WINS EASILY 17 TO 1

Hanoverton won a Salem A. C. league game 17-1 Wednesday, defeating the Salem Merchants with practically no pain whatsoever.

The league leaders belted out 19 safe blows and committed two errors while the Juniors were limited to just a pair of bingles.

Unpredictable Dodgers Ride Winning Streak

NO NEW RECORDS SEEN FOR HOMERS, BUT MANY AROUND

Production Is Above Last Year's Peak, But Pace Is Down Individually

BY OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK, July 8.—The home runs still are sailing merrily over the major league fences today and, while nobody will break the 1947 record of 221 set by the Giants, the overall production probably will be greater as the pitching remains sub-standard.

These facts are indicated in a survey of the four-bagger harvest to date this season compared with the same number of games last year. The American league has upped its output 12 from 328 to 340 and the National league, while far ahead in round trippers, has increased its quota only seven from 392 to 399.

The home run derby shapes up this way:

NATIONAL LEAGUE		Games 1948 1947
New York	63	83	101
Cincinnati	71	62	52
Pittsburgh	68	53	63
St. Louis	69	49	48
Boston	71	48	38
Chicago	70	37	28
Brooklyn	66	35	36
Philadelphia	73	32	26

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Games 1948 1947
Cleveland 67 76 56
New York 70 74 57
Boston 67 61 46
Detroit 70 37 41
Philadelphia 73 36 31
St. Louis 67 22 45
Chicago 66 22 22
Washington 70 13 20

The largest power increase was shown by the Cleveland Indians, with an additional 19 homers, followed by the Yankees and Red Sox with 17 and 15 more respectively. The Browns, weakened by many sales, dropped off the most, 23, but Washington again is the weakest with only 13.

As for the rest of the American league, the A's have hit five more than they did in the same number of games last year while Chicago is consistently poor with an equalizing number of 22. Detroit dropped off 14 and Washington trails its '47 pace by seven.

Technically, the Indians and Yankees still could top the 1926 Yankee record of 182 for the season, but it looks very improbable.

As for the National league, the Giants are the leaders with 83 but trail their record '47 pace by 18, which makes their 221 homer mark appear safe.

Cincinnati, led by Hank Sauer's 24, has upped its production by 10,

Bob Lemon's Success Yarn Is a Trial and Error Maxim

Although there have been 84 no-hit games registered in the major leagues since the turn of the century, only five still-active American League hurlers have achieved this distinction—and three of them are with the Cleveland Indians.

When Bob Lemon, the Tribe's brilliant young converted infielder-outfielder, tamed Detroit's Tigers last week with nary a safe blow he carved himself a niche in baseball's Hall of Fame alongside teammates Bob Feller and Don Black.

Together, the three of them give the Indians a virtual monopoly on no-hit specialists in the junior circuit and the further distinction of having fostered this diamond rarity for three successive years.

Strikeout King Bob Feller launched the streak in 1946 when he muffed the Yankee bats to duplicate his 1940 Opening day performance against Chicago. Then in 1947 it was Don Black who climaxed his heartwarming comeback through Alcoholic Anonymous by blanking his former mates, the Philadelphia Athletics, without a safety before 47,871 frenzied Cleveland fans—the largest crowd ever to see a no-hitter until Lemon worked his magic against the Tigers.

There were 49,028 assembled in Briggs stadium as Lemon stretched the Indian string to three successive years and gave the Tribe a three to two edge over Connie Mack's A's, who can boast the only other still-active no-hit artists in Dick Fowler and Bill McCahan.

But the brilliant performance by Lemon was more than a no-hitter to the industrious young Californian. It marked a pinnacle of success achieved despite difficulties that would have long since discouraged most athletes.

When he deftly fielded George Kell's boulder for the final out he had accomplished a feat that he'd never dream of as he started his professional baseball career with Osego in 1938. For at that time, and until he entered the Navy in 1942, an increase matched by the Boston Braves. The Cubs have added nine over last season, the Phils six and the Cards one.

Pittsburgh is off 10, probably because of the loss of Hank Greenberg and his "garden," for the largest National league slump. But the Bucs, aided by Ralph Kiner's 23, still are third in the circuit.

All in all, the fans can look for a slight increase in the overall total of home runs this season—but no records. Which means, apparently, that the caliber of major league pitching still isn't what it used to be, or there really is a lot more jackrabbit in the new ball.

OUTDOOR BOXING SHOW SCHEDULED HERE JULY 16TH

Scott Chisholm To Sponsor Program Here At Salem A. C. Park

Announcement of an outdoor eight-bout amateur boxing show in Salem on Friday, July 16, made today by Scott Chisholm, operator of the Salem A. C. park on E. State st., at the eastern city limits.

Chisholm has arranged, through the boxing stable of George Bolen of Cleveland, for two five-round fights, featuring a Salem boy, Jim Quinn, and six all-star three-round affairs.

The show is slated for 9 p. m. Friday, July 16, and will pit Quinn against another featherweight, Tommy Salem of the Avon A. C. Cleveland. Quinn was a winner in the Youngstown Golden Gloves tournament last winter and lost out in the later eliminations in Cleveland.

The actual main bout is to be a light heavyweight affair matching Bolen's protege, Joe Bulich of Pierce, W. Va., against Don Edmunds of Cleveland. Both go about 170 pounds.

Bulich is touted as one of the most promising of the Golden Gloves winners in recent years. He captured the Cleveland championship last year and has been winning a number of later bouts.

The park will be equipped to handle about 1,000 fans, Chisholm said. The ticket sale will begin within a few days.

The event is the first outdoor boxing show ever staged in Salem.

May Overcome Leaders If Pace Continues; Tribe On Top After Beating Chicago

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The unpredictable Brooklyn Dodgers were riding high today on the wings of a six-game winning streak—and threatening to catch the leaders before the month is out.

The latest Brooklyn victory march not only enhanced the Dodgers' chances to retain their National league championship, but may have halted, for the time being at least, rumors that Leo Durocher is on the way out as manager.

It is no secret that Durocher must make a good showing this year or quit. Meanwhile, the Dodgers find themselves in the best position they've been all season. Last night's 4-3 victory in 11 innings over the Boston Braves at Ebbets field left them in fifth place, only a game behind the first division New York Giants. They trail the pace-setting Braves by six and a half games, but are only four games behind in the important losing column.

The Cleveland Indians maintained their slim 10 percentage point edge on the Philadelphia Athletics in the American league race by trouncing the Chicago White Sox, 10-2. The A's also won their game, edging out the Yankees at New York, 4-3.

Bob Feller hurled his ninth victory for the Tribe, pitching shutout ball after the first inning. The cellar-dwelling White Sox rapped Feller for two runs on three hits in the first inning.

Hank Majeski, a Yankee castoff, was the big gun for the A's. The hard-hitting third baseman, walloped a home run and triple to drive in three runs against his former mates. Tommy Byrne was the victim.

Trailing 2-6, the Washington Senators suddenly came to life with a five-run rally in the top of the ninth to nip the Red Sox at Boston, 7-6. Manager Joe McCarthy who started with Boo Ferriss, used five pitchers in a frantic attempt to halt the Nats.

Hal Newhouser became the first Detroit pitcher to twirl a shutout this season when he blanked the St. Louis Browns, 6-0, for his 12th victory. He has lost six.

Pittsburgh moved past St. Louis.

Car Industry Anticipates Building 2½ Million Units

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor
DETROIT, July 8.—The car industry expects to build two and one-half million more cars and trucks in the six months ahead.

The program is not only a hope but should be realized barring a major work stoppage in one of the "big three" companies of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler, or several of the smaller concerns.

The industry came through the year's first six months with an output of more than 2,500,000 vehicles. It achieved his volume despite a 17-day shutdown of Chrysler plants, stoppages in all General Motors plants of two weeks or more and the halting of Ford operations for model change-overs.

The car manufacturers, of course, do not expect any more serious stoppages, although an increase in production tempo probably would make it possible to absorb some minor suspensions. They are, always, concerned about their steel supply.

Smaller Strikes Hurt

A number of strikes in supplier plants also contribute to the automobile makers' worries. But these worries have been present ever since the end of the war and production has been mounting steadily. Last year the factories turned out approximately 4,800,000 cars and trucks and they appear certain to reach 5,000,000 this year.

Yet the backlog of unfilled orders still is higher than at any time since the war. The figure 6,000,000 now is most commonly used in appraising the total of unfilled new car orders. But even if the figure is a bit high the factories are far behind their demand and the dealers generally have more orders on their books than they can fill for many months.

Latest word regarding new models is that the new 1949 Nash line will appear some time in October. The Nash plants probably will close late in August for the change-over. Best guesses are that the switch will take from three to four weeks.

One or two of the General Motors divisions probably also will be in 1949 model work by October.

Kaiser-Frazer also is doing some new model preliminary work. It is understood to be planning a new hard-top convertible, for presentation later this year.

Paper Work

Paper work on virtually all the 1949 models was completed long ago. In many instances the tools and dies are nearing readiness. The scheduled production of current models, however, is yet to be attained.

The car makers did produce a large volume of vehicles during the first six months of the year but the proportion of passenger cars was not as large as had been expected. So there will be some delay in bringing out the 1949 cars until current model output catches up with the parts and sub-assemblies the industry has contracted for with its suppliers.

The 2,500,000 vehicles turned out between Jan. 1 and July 1 this year included about 1,800,000 passenger cars. About 125,000 of these were shipped to foreign markets.

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?

If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in freeing your stomach from this nervous distention. It works this way: Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that this food is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the fact that this food contains special and potent stimulating ingredients.

Also, this food helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional stomachs with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice. This rich red blood you should eat better sleep better and better work better play better.

Avoid purchasing your food with over-doses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you need is to build blood to help you digest food for your strength to win the battle of living and the battle of health. Don't wait until you are in the hospital for a stomach operation. Buy this food from your drug store today and your food will be better digested.

Sheriff Must Take Away His Railroad, Court Rules

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., — The Greene County court ruled that John T. Pierpont must stick to sheriffing and give up engineering, at least on the court house lawn. Sheriff Pierpont installed a toy train on the court house lawn. He planned to operate it for profit, the court said.

Pierpont packed up his train and moved it to a skeet-shooting range, which he also operates.
